

ANNUAL SUPPORT

Rarely does your generosity have such an immediate impact on the lives of others as with your annual gifts to The Fund for Syracuse. Why? Because dollars from The Fund for Syracuse are flexible and immediately available, giving the Chancellor, college deans, and other division heads the ability to direct resources wherever they're most urgently needed.

The Campaign for Syracuse University seeks to increase annual gifts to The Fund for Syracuse by $75 million—providing versatile, immediately available funds in support of University-wide priorities, scholarships, initiatives within the individual schools and colleges, and other priorities, including the SU Library, SU Abroad, Hendricks Chapel, Student Affairs, and Syracuse University Athletics.

Here are just some examples of the many ways resources from The Fund for Syracuse are used:

Instruction, Academic Support, and Student Services

Most people don't realize that tuition and fees account for only a portion of SU's annual budget. Gifts to The Fund for Syracuse create an essential bridge between tuition revenues and the actual cost of educating an SU student, ensuring that all of our students have access to a first-rate education.

Financial Aid

Did you know that SU ranks among the top one-fifth of the nation's private institutions in making education accessible to more students through financial aid? At any given time, a full 80 percent of our student body receives some kind of financial assistance.

Physical Plant and Other Auxiliaries

Gifts to The Fund for Syracuse provide funds to cover a wide range of costs, everything from dining hall renovations to such everyday expenses as heating, lighting, and snow removal.

Institutional Support and Administration

Syracuse University is not unlike a small city. Dollars from The Fund for Syracuse make it possible for us to provide the wide range of services and support necessary to keep SU operating 365 days a year.

Every Gift Counts

Not certain your gift of $50, $100, or even $500 makes a difference? It does, especially when your gift is added to those of thousands of SU alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and friends.

Your gift of . . . will provide . . .

- $ 50 Blue books for class midterms in PHI 191: Ethics & Value Theory
- $ 100 One month of lighting for Shaw Dining Hall
- $ 150 Overnight accommodations for a guest lecturer
- $ 200 One electronic microscope for a biology lab
- $ 500 Travel to a national tournament for one SU mock trial team student
- $ 850 Ten nonfiction books for the SU Library
- $ 1,000 One workstation in a computer cluster

SCHOLARSHIP IN ACTION SU EXPERIENCE INCITES A COMMITMENT TO ANNUAL GIVING

Throughout high school, Kimberly Alleman McKee '92 dreamed of attending SU's Newhouse School. With the help of merit scholarships, financial aid, and work-study, she was able to become the first person in her family to attend college—and pursue a dual major in magazine journalism and political philosophy.

It was through her work-study job as a student caller for The Fund for Syracuse that she came to understand the connection between annual gifts and scholarships for deserving students.

Today, McKee attributes much of her personal and professional success to the people she met and the experiences she had at SU. And she remains committed to “paying it forward,” giving to The Fund for Syracuse every year to help make other students’ dreams come true.

Student callers for The Fund for Syracuse see firsthand the impact annual gifts have on scholarships, programs, and other initiatives.
