

“I included Syracuse University in my estate plan because I wanted to ensure that future generations of students have the same opportunity to succeed as I did. I hope, by my example, to teach my sons the value of supporting education throughout their lifetimes—and beyond.”

—David Edelstein '78

LEAVE YOUR IMPRINT ON TOMORROW. ACT TODAY.

There's no question. Taking care of your loved ones is the first priority of any well-thought-out estate plan. But once you've provided for family and friends, how do you ensure that your ideals and your passions live on? Leaving a bequest to Syracuse University is a simple, flexible, and powerful opportunity to do just that.

Extend a Helping Hand to SU's Future Generations

When you name SU a beneficiary of your estate, you can specify how you want your gift to be used. Do you have a passion for the arts? Do you love exploring history? Would you like to support a specific program or department, endow an undergraduate scholarship, or continue making an annual gift? With a bequest, it's easy to choose the gift option that best meets your individual circumstances and desires. You can, for example:

- >> Specify that SU will receive a percentage of the estate that remains after other beneficiaries are provided for.
- >> Designate SU the beneficiary of specific assets, such as securities, retirement funds, or real estate.
- >> Leave a specific dollar amount to SU.

But regardless of the method you choose, you can rest assured that your generosity will be felt on campus for years to come.

How to Make a Plan

Bequests don't have to be big to have an impact. In fact, SU's continued success is the direct result of thousands of bequests—large and small—made by alumni and friends. To learn how you can do the same, call 888.352.9535, or e-mail giftplan@syr.edu. For help on writing a bequest, visit giving.syr.edu/samplebequest.

Be a Leader

When you make a bequest, you'll be recognized as a Syracuse University Pathfinder—joining a group of insightful leaders who have included SU in their long-term financial plans.
